Résumé : En imaginant cette formule instrumentale "sans tambour ni trompette", Django Reinhardt et Stéphane Grappelli ont marqué de leur empreinte l'histoire du jazz. De l'enthousiasme des années 30 aux splendeurs de l'après-guerre, l'aventure du Quintette à cordes du Hot Club de France fait entendre un perpétuel renouvellement. Entièrement remasterisée et rassemblée pour la première fois dans son intégralité, l'oeuvre-phare des deux maîtres européens souffle un incroyable vent de liberté.
